Derby Summer Beer Festival is Here Again

The 34th Derby City Charter Beer Festival featuring 200 real ales from all quarters of these islands is upon us, and has the rare distinction of having nearly 30 years at the same, Assembly Rooms, venue. To mark 40 years of CAMRA, the official festival opening on the 6th July starts at the Alexandra pub where the first ever Derby CAMRA meeting took place. A horse and cart carrying a wooden cask of Marston's VSOP (a 6.7% version of Pedigree matured over 5 weeks in their Burton Union, followed by a two-stage hopping process) will leave the "Alex" at 6pm and continue its journey to Derby Market Place to meet the Mayor and the Beer King, who will officially declare the festival open at 630pm. Those who are used to the festival may be surprised by the small but precise changes that have been made this year. To start with the famous CAMRA Tango security team will be on duty to offer advice and support to visitors for the very first time this year, and four of the past Champion Beers of Britain, plus a wild card, will be showcased, following nominations by readers of Derby Drinker. The festival is run entirely by volunteers so, even at this late stage, if you can spare any time at all during the festival, your efforts would be greatly appreciated. Please email summerstaffing@derbycamra.org.uk or call/text Julian Tubbs on 07962 267743.

Nunsfield is Derbyshire Club of the Year

The CAMRA Derbyshire Club of the Year presentation was made at the end of June by Regional Director, Julian Tubbs, to the Nunsfield Club, Nunsfield House, Boulton Lane, Alvaston. This enterprising club has held beer festivals and has long been a champion of high quality real ale. Derby CAMRA's congratulations go to the steward, Paul, and it would be good to see other clubs, which have suitable cellaring, following the Nunsfield's lead.

Project William to Rescue Little Eaton Pub

Trevor and Paul Harris, the father and son combo behind Derby Brewing Company, have collaborated with Everards, the Leicester brewers, in a Project William venture to save the Queens Head in Little Eaton from oblivion. Built just before Queen Victoria ascended to the throne, the plan is to re-establish the original layout and feature eight handpulls of DBC beers and three guests. This will be Trevor's fourth such acquisition of abandoned pubs, and we keenly await the former Kimberley house's reopening in the Autumn.

Derby Winter Festival 2012

Summer Festival Review Meeting

The four major points that the current Summer Beer Fest committee were asked to improve upon for 2011 were: 1) Beer choice, 2) Entertainment style 3) Reduced revenue & 4) Attendance.

The Summer Beer Fest committee invites all members who have visited the festival to feedback their comments by 30 July to summersecretary@derbycamra.org.uk. Please tell us what went well for you, and what we can continue to improve on.

Queens Head is East Midlands Cider Pub of the Year

The Queens Head, Breach Road, Marlpool recently won this prestigious CAMRA award and it follows its commendation as Erewash Valley CAMRA Pub of the Year. There will be a presentation, to which all are invited, on Friday, 15th July at 8pm with a free hog roast/bbq and limited free samples of cider and perry. If you haven't already visited the Queens, near Heanor, this would be a good opportunity as there is always a fine selection of ales in a beautifully restored Victorian pub which has recently had period signage added. The Queens is also the main sponsor of the second Amber Valley Rail Ale Festival at Butterley Station, Ripley between 29th September and 2nd October.

Micro Brewery Boom Continues

There seems to be no end in sight to the micro brewing revolution that's flourished in the new millennium. We've heard on the hopvine that Steve Twells and Carla Johnson are to start brewing under the name of Middle Earth, at the Rowditch which has spare capacity. Also, the brewery at the Flower Pot is about to be given a new lease of life as Black Iris by two former Castle Rock employees.

Derby Campaigning Goals

The Derby Branch has set its 3 campaigning goals for the forthcoming year. It was felt we should continue with the Discount Scheme and the LocAle Scheme as although progress had been made there was still further things that needed to be done. The third is to be the introduction of a Mild Trail next May as it was felt that we had not adequately promoted Real Mild in recent times. We will keep you updated at Branch Meetings.

Liaison Officers required

VALLEY VIEW

News from the Amber Valley Sub-Branch

Ripley Revival is for Real

Many years ago, Ripley, the administrative centre of Amber Valley, had five collieries, and the thirst of the miners was slaked, in the main, by the Nottinghamshire breweries. At the start of the 1990s the four remaining Notts breweries, Home, Mansfield, Shipstone's and Kimberley were busy supplying quality beer to their tied houses in the town. In the ensuing years, the breweries were picked off one by one by suitors leaving limited choice for the discerning drinker, and simultaneously a significant number of traditional locals called last orders. Happily, however, in the new millennium, the real ale scene has improved immeasurably, and so in the spirit of the Derby CAMRA ABC (Annual Beer Census) I decided to take a look at what was on offer in the former mining town. A whistlestop tour of eight pubs on a Thursday evening revealed 30 different beers from 15 different breweries. These numbers will, of course, receive a massive boost between 29th September and 2nd October when the Amber Valley Rail Ale Festival showcases 80 real ales at nearby Butterley Station.

New Webpage

Amber Valley CAMRA has now got its own dedicated webpage on the Derby CAMRA website

www.derbycamra.org.uk/ambervalley

This will contain all the latest Amber Valley info, including social details and Branch contacts. If there is anything you would like to see on this page then e-mail the Branch Secretary, Paul Gibson at maria.curl@hotmail.co.uk

Minutes of the Amber Valley CAMRA meeting at the ### Midland, Ripley on 30th June 2011

Meeting started at 840pm with 10 attendees.

Apologies for absence Anne and Mark, Karen, Gus.

Minutes of last meeting Accepted as a true record.

Matters arising Nathan and Alison had attended Derby branch meeting and said that Derby had had a temporary Editor of Derby Drinker since Pip Southall stepped down as Editor. Regarding the possibility of AV becoming independent, Derby would back us and CAMRA would fund our regular activities in the event of an AV beer festival failure. There would, however, be a three-year time lapse between becoming independent and complete financial autonomy. Four committee positions would have to be filled. Paul had spoken to Regional Director, Julian Tubbs, regarding pubs displaying NBSS forms for their CAMRA customers to complete, and Julian had responded by saying there was nothing improper about this practise but we should be wary of unusually high scores being recorded. Nigel Heathcote opined that the system was vulnerable to abuse. Paul had booked the Holly Bush branch meeting. Phil Marshall reported that a visit to Raw brewery would involve some walking and there was an issue relating to the inclusion of beer in the ticket price. A full bus of 16 was likely and Phil would speak to Pete Webb (action PM). Hire of the bus, in August/September between, say, 11am and 5pm would cost £100. Spire brewery visit also a possibility. Alison had not yet spoken to Chris Burke (mini bus driver) action AC. Nathan and Alison had booked New Inn, Riddings meeting.

Committee reports Nathan reported that festival preparations are progressing well with flyers available tonight. We're getting more folk involved. Big Piece in What's Brewing beer festival diary page. Organ Grinder, Nottingham will take our posters. Nathan urged us to buy CAMRA raffle tickets. Gus is resigning from his membership post at October's AGM and will happily induct his successor. Secretary, Paul, distributed the window stickers which were a joint pub promotion scheme initiated by CAMRA and the Sunday Mirror. Paul to order 36 GBGs (action PG). Social Secretary, Alison, was receiving help from Phil and Pete. Gus, who was absent, had sent a membership report which showed 462 AV members as at 16th June. Only 11 branches in the East Midlands have more members than AV, and CAMRA has over 125,000 members nationally.

Pub news Just outside our area, firstly, Joan at the Cliff, Crich was leaving after her lease expired, and secondly, Queens

Head, Little Eaton rescued by Project William and autumn opening planned. Marquis of Ormonde is struggling to survive. Holly Bush, Marehay has been bought as a free house and is likely to be of interest. We'll have a social there when it opens. Jane Wallis spoke well of Spanker, Nether Heage, and Black Boy, Heage. The latter had three real ales and would put two more on if we had a branch meeting there. A much loved barmaid, Debbie, has transferred from the Pear Tree, Ripley, to the Red Lion in the Market Place.

Future meeting dates Festival: 21st July, Strutt Club, Belper. 11th August, Hunter Arms, Kilburn. 1st September, Thorn Tree, Waingroves. Branch: 28th July, Holly Bush, Makeney. 25th August, New Inn, High Street, Riddings. 22nd September, Black Boy, Heage (Mick and Jane to book).

AOB Paul's suggestion of a St George's Day social on Monday, 23rd April, met with approval. Midland Railway meeting still to be arranged (action NH). Friday, 12th August will be festival poster pub-crawl evening. Meet 730 Swan and Salmon, Watchorn Lane, Alfreton-team leader Phil Marshall. 730 Pear Tree, Ripley-team leader Nathan. Belper will be handled by Paul, with details to be announced. Ripley Co-op to be approached for festival sponsorship/exposure (action AC).

Meeting closed at 10pm.
